

Fragments and Sentences

A sentence must have:

1. A subject
2. A verb
3. A complete thought which makes sense.

Subject Verb
 ↙ ↘
Gareth Bale stood on the grass.

A fragment is a sentence which has something missing.

Stood on the grass.
Gareth Bale on the grass.

Mark whether the examples below are a sentence (S) or a fragment (F).

	1. Gareth Bale stood on the grass.
	2. It like velvet on his toes.
	3. The hot sun down, reflecting on the crowd.
	4. The crowd singing their team's song.
	5. He was.

Challenge: Write the sentences out adding what is missing so that the sentence makes sense.