

Sabotage with Counter-Arguments

When arguing your point in a letter, discussion or article you can often neutralise your enemy by thinking about what their point might be and then countering that opinion by fighting with facts about why their point is wrong. This is called a counter-argument.

You have been given some points below. Now you need to make notes against the arguments given.

- School uniform is smart

 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
- School uniform means that there is no bullying

 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
- School uniform means that everyone looks the same

 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
- You can buy cheap school uniform from many shops

 - _____
 - _____
 - _____
- Wearing school uniform means that you are in the right frame of mind to learn

 - _____
 - _____
 - _____

